RABBI MARTIN M. WEITZ

Rabbi Weitz was born in Denver, Colorado, August 3, 1907, and graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1932 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He became a Rabbi in 1934 and received a Master of Arts degree in 1936 from Colorado State College of Education.

He was the editor and manager of the "Western Jewish World" 1924-25 and of the "Hebrew Union College Monthly" 1931-33. In 1932 he founded the "Youth Leader" in Cincinnati and was its co-editor until 1936. He became manager of the "Social Press" in 1934. He was director of the B'nai Brith Hillel Foundation at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, 1934-37; became professor at Colorado State College of Education in the summer of 1936; and has been instructor at the College of Jewish Studies in Chicago since 1936. He was director of education at Temple Sholom 1936-37, and has been Rabbi of Temple Beth Hillel at Kenosha, Wisconsin, the second largest Liberal Jewish congregation in that state, since 1937.

Rabbi Weitz became a member of the American Advisory Committee of The World Calendar Association early in 1938. Long an advocate of calendar simplification, he conducted a lecture tour through the Middle and Far West in the summer of 1938, under the auspices of The World Calendar Association.
